We have the solution!

Home office solutions from König + Neurath

- + Now Covid-19 has accelerated the rate at which the workplace is moving more towards individuality and remote business.
- + Far more people are working from home, and this geographical flexibility is likely to play a more important role in the future as well.
- + Solutions at home are frequently improvised. With workstations that don't reflect individual preferences, needs or personal style.

What kind of home office would best suit the different life and living cultures?

Our end-to-end portfolio for home office solutions incorporates concepts for a variety of room scenarios in different styles:

Scenario A

- + Separate room or study available

Scenario B

- + Not much space, rooms used for multiple functions, flexible solution required
